

SYSTEMS & PROCESS

Systems and process is about how artwork is created. Can you learn a new skill and keep focused to create an artwork in space below?

Do you know Bridget Riley? Bridget is an artist who makes optical illusion art, which means that it can sometimes look like its moving! Its called OP ART. She started off making black and white abstract art, inspired by the shapes, movement and colours of the sea.

Create your own PROCESS drawing on the graph below. Try making a repeat pattern on the graph.
