Course Summary

Description

Teaching is at the centre of the activities of the School of Government and International Affairs and you will enjoy a vibrant and challenging intellectual environment. The School places great importance on research-led teaching, which integrates new and cutting-edge research into the curriculum and introduces you to a variety of research-oriented skills and research-based projects.

Undergraduate teaching is structured around three main streams: Political Thought, Political Institutions, and International Relations. You will move from generalist courses in these areas in your early years to more specialised options in Politics which explore the diverse and dynamic politics of the contemporary world. Modules in the second and third years reflect the research expertise of the School's members of staff. Such areas include, but are not limited to European Politics, Political Thought, Middle East Politics, the Politics of East Asia and International Theory.

Year 1

Compulsory modules:

- Researching Politics and International Relations
- Political Theory
- Comparative Politics
- Democratic Political Systems.

Plus two of the following:

- International Security, Interdependence and Organisation
- Global Regions in International Relations
- Introduction to International Relations OR ONE module offered by another department OR one module offered by the Centre for Foreign Language Study.

Year 2

Compulsory modules:

- Research Project
- EITHER Foundations of Western Political Thought OR Analytical Politics.

Optional modules:

You can choose four of the following which can include the one above not chosen previously. These may vary annually but in the past have included:

- International Theory
- The Politics of Pacific Asia

- International Organisations
- Global Political Economy
- Introduction to Politics and International Relations of the Middle East
- European Politics
- One module offered by another department OR one module offered by the Centre for Foreign Language Study.

Year 3

Single Honours Politics (Year Abroad) is broadly similar to the Politics BA (Hons), but with an additional year abroad at a university in Italy, France, Spain, Holland, Poland, Germany, Sweden, Morocco or Israel through the ERASMUS programme. We also have overseas exchange programmes with universities in the USA, Canada, China and Singapore. Students apply for a one-year study placement in these institutions at the end of their first year.

Year 4

Compulsory module:

- Dissertation (Double).

Plus four optional modules from a list which may vary annually but in the past have included:

- The American Presidency
- The Ethics of Violence in International Relations
- Theories of Liberty
- China in Global Political Economy
- One module offered by another department.

We review course structures and core content (in light of e.g. external and student feedback) every year, and will publish finalised core requirements for 2020 entry from September 2019.

Placement Year

You may be able to take a work placement. Find out more (www.durham.ac.uk/placements/).

Admissions Process

Subject requirements, level and grade

A level offer – AAA including a social science or humanities subject. Grade A in a Social Science or Humanities Subject at GCSE, is preferred but not required

BTEC Level 3 National Extended Diploma/OCR Cambridge Technical Extended Diploma – DDD and A levels as above.

IB Diploma score – 37 with 666 in higher level subjects, including a social sciences or humanities subject.

In addition to satisfying the University's general entry requirements, please note:

- We welcome applications from those with other qualifications equivalent to our standard entry requirements and from mature students with non-standard qualifications or who may have had a break in their study.
- If you do not satisfy our general entry requirements, the Foundation Programme (www.dur.ac.uk/foundation.programme/) offers multidisciplinary degrees to prepare you for a range of specified degree courses.
- We are pleased to consider applications for deferred entry.

English Language requirements

References

When applying for roles many employers will ask you to supply academic references from one of your tutors. We always advise that you should approach tutors who know you and your work well, such as a special subject or dissertation tutor.

To help guide you with this process we arrange for advisors from the Careers, Employability and Enterprise Centre (www.dur.ac.uk/careers/) provide short presentations to each year group as part of joined up sessions with an Academic Careers Contact and the Head of Undergraduate Studies:

- Year 1 covers an introduction to developing employability skills.
- Year 2 focuses on internships / work experience.
- Year 3 focuses on graduate schemes / recruitment cycle / effective on-line applications

Open days and visits

Pre-application open day

Pre-application open days are the best way to discover all you need to know about Durham University. With representatives from all relevant academic and support service departments, and opportunities to explore college options, the open days provide our prospective undergraduates with the full experience of Durham University.

Please see the following page for further details and information on how to book a place:
www.durham.ac.uk/opendays

Discover Durham Tours

Discover Durham tours offer a brief introduction to the University. The tour begins at one of our undergraduate colleges, where you will receive an introductory talk from a member of college staff, followed by a tour of the college by current students.
