Module Level: 6

Module Credit Value: 20

Pre-requisites: None

Co-requisites: None

Excluded Combination of Modules: None

Aims:

To support students in their ministerial development through their engagement with well-informed and structured forms of theological reflection which underpin reflective practice in a ministerial / professional / vocational context.

To develop a thorough understanding of Christian mission and ministry with young people, and to the relationship between these and specific groups and contexts.

To enable students to interpret and analyse the self-narratives of young people and those of the local church's ministry with young people using a variety of methodological resources drawn from, for example, sociology, anthropology and contextual theologies.

To enable students to take a proactive and self-reflective role in developing models of professional and ministerial practice and relationships in mission and ministry with young people in the local context.

Content:

Examine contemporary forms of mission and ministry with young people from biblical, historical and theological perspectives, particularly in relation to application to specific local situations.

Explore selected contemporary themes and metaphors in mission and ministry with young people such as: Spirituality, healing, reconciliation, participation, belonging, personal and social development, transition to adulthood, relational care etc.

Critically explore the contributions of various disciplines (eg. sociology, anthropology and contextual theology) in developing an understanding of the inter-relation between the local church and young people.

Discuss and critique appropriate methods and means for mission and ministry with young people in contemporary contexts.

Learning Outcomes: By the end of this module students will be able to:

Subject Specific Knowledge [BA SSK 2, 3] [Graduate Cert SSK 2/ Graduate Dip SSK 1, 2]
