engage in detail with selected texts of the Old and New Testaments in their cultural and religious contexts, analysing and using a range of approaches to interpretation, leading to an ability to research & give a detailed account of aspects of Christian doctrine, ethics & church history in a range of historical & contemporary contexts, analysing significant developments & concepts;

describe practices of Christian discipleship, including mission and worship, analysing theological, ecclesial and contextual understandings of such practices and of the nature of discipleship in relation to specific contexts in and beyond the church.

apply different approaches to reading and interpreting biblical texts, communicating these with relevance and sensitivity to specialist and non-specialist audiences and contexts; develop existing skills and acquire new competences and modes of inquiry in practices of Christian discipleship, mission and ministry, in the light of theological and, where appropriate, other disciplines, in new contexts;

draw on key aspects of relevant disciplines to begin developing a critical analysis of contemporary situations, reflecting on practice and experience, in the context of discipleship, mission and ministry, recognising the importance of knowing the limits of their knowledge; identify, gather, analyse and evaluate textual source materials for a range of purposes;

undertake a critical analysis of information and arguments, communicating these effectively to specialist and non-specialist audiences, showing critical self-awareness of their own beliefs, commitments and prejudices...

take responsibility for a task that involves independent inquiry, the management of time, resources and use of IT; meeting deadlines evaluating the task and learning from it;

plan their own personal and professional development.
