

Disability Hate Crime

Don't suffer in silence. Report it.

Hate Crimes come in different forms

- Verbal abuse
- Bullying or intimidation
- Physical attacks
- Threats of violence
- Harm or damage to your home
- Malicious complaints
- Abusive phone calls, text messages or mail

How can you report it?

In an emergency, always contact the police – PHONE 999.

If it is not an emergency situation, you can call 101 or attend the Police Station.

You can also report hate crime to these organisations: Citizens Advice, True Vision, Stop Hate UK and Crimestoppers.

Alternatively, you can report online at <http://www.report-it.org.uk/home>

Someone may have a disability if they

Have a physical or mental impairment that has a 'substantial' and 'long-term' negative effect on their ability to do normal daily activities.

SOURCE: Equality Act 2010

RELIGION-BASED

HATE CRIMES COME IN VARIOUS FORMS

Don't suffer in silence

Report it

Verbal abuse

Bullying or intimidation

Physical attacks

Threats of violence

Harm or damage to your home

Malicious complaints

Abusive phone calls

Abusive text messages or mail

In an emergency, always contact the police – PHONE 999.

If it is not an emergency situation, you can call 101 or attend the Police Station.

You can also report hate crime to these organisations: Citizens Advice, True Vision, Stop Hate UK and Crimestoppers.

Alternatively, you can report online at <http://www.report-it.org.uk/home>

RACIAL HATE CRIME

Did you know?

The number of reported hate crimes in England and Wales has increased by 29% in the last 12 months

Source: Home Office, 2017

It comes in different forms

- Verbal abuse
- Bullying or intimidation
- Physical attacks
- Threats of violence

- Harm or damage to your home
- Malicious complaints
- Abusive phone calls, text messages or mail

Don't suffer in silence

In an emergency, always contact the police – PHONE 999.

If it is not an emergency situation, you can call 101 or attend the Police Station.

You can also report hate crime to these organisations: Citizens Advice, True Vision, Stop Hate UK and Crimestoppers.

Alternatively, you can report online at <http://www.report-it.org.uk/home>

REPORT IT!

LGBT hate crime facts in Britain

1 in 5 LGBT people have experienced a hate crime or incident due to their sexual orientation

4 in 5 LGBT people who experienced a hate crime or incident didn't report it to the police

Source: Stonewall, 2017

Hate crimes can be

Verbal abuse
Threats
Intimidation
Harassment
Bullying

Physical abuse
Graffiti
Vandalism
Hoax calls

How to report

In an emergency, always contact the police – PHONE 999.

If it is not an emergency situation, you can call 101 or attend the Police Station.

You can also report hate crime to these organisations: Citizens Advice, True Vision, Stop Hate UK and Crimestoppers.

Alternatively, you can report online at <http://www.report-it.org.uk/home>

DON'T SUFFER IN SILENCE

REPORT HATE CRIMES

DID YOU KNOW?

2 in 5 trans people in Britain have experienced a hate crime or incident because of their gender identity in the last 12 months

TRANS HATE CRIME

DON'T SUFFER IN SILENCE

HOW TO REPORT

In an emergency, always contact the police – PHONE 999.

If it is not an emergency situation, you can call 101 or attend the Police Station.

You can also report hate crime to these organisations: Citizens Advice, True Vision, Stop Hate UK and Crimestoppers.

Alternatively, you can report online at <http://www.report-it.org.uk/home>

