YOUTH JUSTICE TRAINING SEMINAR

hosted at

Queen’s Campus Durham University

12th September 2012

‘ARE WE DOING YOUTH JUSTICE?’

The day will comprise a mixture of plenary sessions and workshops with opportunities for delegates to participate.

It will look at contemporary practice and policy issues and debates in youth justice

NAYJ members £15
Non members £20
(to include lunch and refreshments)

There are a limited number of concessions for non-waged people. Please contact info@thenayj.org.uk.

The National Association for Youth Justice is a registered charity no. 1138177
The National Association for Youth Justice is a registered charity no. 1138177

hosted by Durham University

‘Are we doing youth justice?’

12th September 2012

Programme

9.15am Registration, Coffee

9.45am Welcome and Introduction
    Pam Hibbert (OBE) Chair of NAYJ Trustees

10.00am Plenary 1 Dr. Tim Bateman, Bedfordshire University “Youth justice: reflections on where we are and where we are going”

10.45am Coffee

11.00am Workshop 1

12noon Workshop 2

1.00pm Lunch

1.45pm Workshop 3

2.45pm Plenary 2 Professor Jo Phoenix, Durham University “Making the links: sexual exploitation, criminalisation and young women”

3.30pm End and tea

Among the workshop topics it is anticipated will be:
    Diversion
    LASPO Act provisions for bail denial for children
    Resettlement
    Sexual exploitation
    Looked after children and offending
    Achieving effective participation