SPIRITUALITY, THEOLOGY & HEALTH
SEMINAR PROGRAMME

Epiphany - Easter Term 2020

These seminars are open to all staff and students of Durham University and to the general public. However, please be aware that they are aimed at a postgraduate level and are therefore especially suitable for MA, PhD and DThM students, as well as for others engaged in postgraduate study in relevant areas of enquiry.

If you would like to attend any of these seminars, please send an e-mail to Charidimos Koutris (charidimos.koutris@durham.ac.uk) in order to ensure that a place will be available for you.

Thursday 13 February 2020 (4.30-6pm)

The Role of the Body in Religion
Seminar Room B (D/TH004), Dept. of Theology & Religion, Abbey House, DH1 3RS, Durham
Dr Fraser Watts,
Visiting Professor of Psychology and Religion, University of Lincoln

Thursday 12 March 2020 (4.30-6pm)

Drawing on a theology of individual differences to explore resilience and wellbeing among Christian clergy: An empirical enquiry
Seminar Room B (D/TH004), Dept. of Theology & Religion, Abbey House, DH1 3RS, Durham
Revd Canon Prof. Leslie J. Francis,
PhD, ScD, DLitt, DD; Professor of Religions and Psychology, University of Warwick; Canon Theologian, Liverpool Cathedral

Thursday 30 April 2020 (4.30-6pm)

‘Human kind cannot bear very much reality’: the relationship between John Ruskin’s aesthetic theory, spirituality, and mental health
Seminar Room B (D/TH004), Dept. of Theology & Religion, Abbey House, DH1 3RS, Durham
Revd Canon Dr Joanna Collicutt,
Karl Jaspers Lecturer, Psychology and Spirituality, Ripon College Cuddesdon; supernumerary fellow, Harris Manchester College, University of Oxford